

UMA NOTA

Unknown to most, São Paulo Brazil is home to the largest community of Japanese outside their home country. By adapting local ingredients, they have created a novel cuisine of their own, and nowadays Paulistas have integrated Japanese cuisine into their everyday lives.

Uma Nota is a modern boteco, which in Brazil is traditionally known as a meeting place for bohemians looking for a refreshing drink, mouth-watering street food and a fun, easy-going vibe.

Our menu is a celebration of the vibrant Brazilian culture with a Japanese touch. It is our unique reimagination of Nipo-Brasileiro cuisine with every bite and sip. Best enjoyed, shared.
